

On the way home from  school,  Will saw many  circles. He saw a  steering wheel and  tires, a  stoplight and a  railroad-crossing sign.

When he got home,  Will told his  mom, "We learned about  circles today, and I saw lots of  circles on the way home."

"Do you see any  circles here?" asked  Mom.

"I see a  table and a  clock,"  Will said.

"I have more  circles for you," said  Mom. "Look on the  table."

 Will looked. On the  table was a  plate.

 "Cookies!"  Will said. "My favorite  circles."
